Dear Father Purayidathil:

Peace be with you!

Having received your letter of intent to build a parish hall at St. Joseph Church, I am pleased to grant my approval for St. Joseph to establish a non-assessable building fund.

This approval is retroactive to the funds collected during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 2008, which will be used in calculating the assessment for fiscal year 2010-2011.

You can be assured of my prayers for the success of your fund raising efforts for the new parish hall.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

All Saints Day & All Souls Day

From Bishop Larry Silva

ALL SAINTS DAY, November 1, 2008 is on a Saturday. Although it is not a holy day of obligation in the Diocese of Honolulu, it should be celebrated with greater solemnity, with a special Saturday Mass that is well advertised, and/or with a Vigil Mass on Friday evening. Celebrating the saints not only honors all the saints – canonized and uncanonized – but is meant to draw us into greater holiness through their example. The Saturday evening Mass would be the Vigil Mass for Sunday, which is the feast of All Souls (see below).

ALL SOULS DAY: Sunday, November 2, 2008 is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day). This Commemoration takes precedence over the 31st Sunday of Ordinary Time, and it should be celebrated at the Saturday Vigil Mass and all Sunday Masses. PLEASE NOTE, however, that the Scripture readings must be pre-selected from options given for All Souls Day (#668 in the Sunday volume of the Lectionary). The Paulist Press Ordo gives suggestions, as do some missalettes, but they are merely suggestions. If you have not already done so, selections should be made now and communicated to lectors, celebrants, musicians and anyone else who will need that information for preparation.

Hilo Roman Catholic Community Mission Statement: We, the Hilo Roman Catholic Community of St. Joseph and Malia Puka O Kalani, guided by the Holy Spirit, Our Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph, gather as a family of believers in the celebration of the Eucharist. Blessed with many cultures, talents and inspired by the Hawaiian tradition of Aloha, we pledge to share our heritage, our gifts and the principles of our faith, and to commit ourselves to the educational, social and spiritual needs of all our brothers and sisters.

October 12, 2008: Twenty Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

Readings: Isaiah: 25:6-10a; Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20; Matthew 22:1-14

First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-10a

The prophet Isaiah in this passage speaks of the abundant providence of the Lord of hosts for all peoples. The date is set in the future when the Lord God will provide a feast for all peoples, take away the veil that keeps them from seeing, put an end to suffering and destroy death for ever. On that day people will rejoice on seeing God and experiencing His salvation.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 23:1-3, 3-4, 5, 6

The familiar Psalm 23 highlights faith and trust in the Lord our Shepherd. It is the Lord who shares and provides food, which is one of the strongest signs of love and care for another person; here the psalm describes God's care for his people. Response: "I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life."

Second Reading: Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

For Paul, having or not having material possessions is not so important. What is important is looking beyond merely having or getting so that we see Christ at the heart of what we have or need. Detachment from material things, therefore, must also go hand in hand with generosity.

Gospel: Matthew 22:1-14

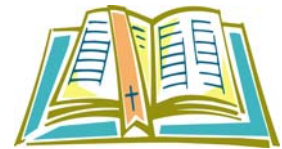

In the Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus tells another parable on the kingdom of heaven and compares it to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. It is clear that God is the King in this parable. Perhaps incredibly, Jesus tells in parable form the indifference and contempt with which God's Kingdom is greeted by the selected guests. Most have other things to do; some, perhaps out of jealousy and ambition, actually mistreat and kill God's prophets. The hostility of some of the invited guests should be seen in the light of the increasing hostility of the chief priests and Pharisees. That attitude is also found in what we read last Sunday in the parable of the vineyard workers. In this parable, God opens his invitation to whoever is to be found from the main roads. All are accepted, on condition of being worthy, that is, of wearing a wedding garment. Jesus concludes the parable with the popular saying, "Many are invited, but few are chosen," mainly to underline God's inclusive generosity in calling all to his banquet, but also to lament the fact of the few who respond positively.

Anointing of the Sick

PART: 1

Suffering and illness have always been among the greatest problems that trouble the human spirit. Jesus understood and shared in that suffering, but his passion transformed pain and death into the glory of the resurrection. Our life in him helps us grasp the mystery of suffering more deeply and bear our pain with greater courage.

Although Christians have always anointed and prayed for the sick, our celebration and even our understanding of the sacrament has changed throughout history. Today, many Catholics are not sure what the sacrament is, when it should be celebrated, and who should participate. As a result, some people who would benefit from the sacrament do not request it, avoid it, or participate in non-sacramental healing services, believing them to be a sacramental rite of the Church.

The purpose of this article is to introduce the history, celebration and theology of the sacrament of the anointing of the sick and give practical examples of when, where, by whom and for whom it may be celebrated.

How did the sacrament develop? What is its history?

This sacrament originated in the healing ministry of Jesus. In first century Palestine, sickness was often associated with sin. People who were ill suffered not only from the illness but also from the pain and guilt of isolation. As Jesus healed, he touched people with God's healing love, freed them from the pain and guilt of isolation, and restored them to their rightful places within the community.

The early Christians, knowing that the spirit of Christ was among them, continued his healing ministry. In James 5:14-15 we read, "Is anyone among you sick? He should summon the presbyters of the church, and they should pray over him and anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord, and the prayer of faith will save the sick person, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed any sins, he will be forgiven."

By the Middle Ages, perhaps due to the high mortality rate and the emphasis on the terrors of hell, the sacrament of the sick lost its association with healing, lost its communal dimension, and became a means of purifying the soul. The prayers emphasized forgiveness and personal salvation, firmly establishing the sacrament among the "last rites" ("extreme unction").

The Second Vatican Council reclaimed the original character of this sacrament. Today, it emphasizes the concern of the Church and the healing power of Christ.

What is the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick?

The anointing of the sick is a sacrament of the Church in which the priest prays, lays hands and anoints the sick person with blessed oil. It may be preceded by the sacrament of reconciliation and followed by Eucharist.

How often can someone receive the sacrament?

The sacrament may be repeated if the recipient suffers from a different illness or injury, or if the same illness or condition becomes more serious. Elderly people may be anointed if they have become weakened even though no serious illness is present.

How sick does someone have to be to receive the sacrament?

Anyone who is dangerously ill due to sickness, injury or old age may be anointed. The sacrament is for serious mental or emotional illness as well. The rite states clearly that a person should be anointed at the beginning of illness, or before surgery whenever a serious condition is the reason for the sur-

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY MAKING A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE

Just as our young church here in the United States received support in the 19th century from the Catholics of Europe through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, so too the growing churches in the Developing World today also require financial help. Your generosity will help make a faith-filled difference around the world!

✚ A gift of $25 would be a month's support for a young woman preparing to serve as a Religious Sister in Mali

✚ A gift of $60 is a month's education for a seminarian in Nigeria ✚ About $50 a month helps a local Religious Community of Sisters in Thailand care for girls in need

✚ Just $20 helps toward the purchase of a bicycle for a catechist in Kenya

While we need not be excessively concerned about the degree of seriousness of the condition, the casual use of the sacrament for ordinary spiritual, emotional and physical challenges can seriously lessen its spiritual impact on both the individual and the community.

Can someone be anointed if he or she is in a coma?

The anointing of the sick may be conferred upon people who have lost consciousness or the use of reason, if it is presumed that they would have asked for the sacrament if they were able.

What is viaticum?

When the Eucharist is received at the time of passage from this life, it is called viaticum, something "with us on the way." It is a special sign of our participation in the mystery of the passion, death and resurrection of our Lord. While the anointing of the sick is for those suffering from illness or infirmity, the sacrament for the dying is the Eucharist.

Can someone be anointed after death?

All sacraments of the Church, including the anointing of the sick, are encounters between a living person and God, celebrated within the context of the Christian community. There are specific prayers designed for the commendation of the dead to the mercy of God and for the consolation of the bereaved.

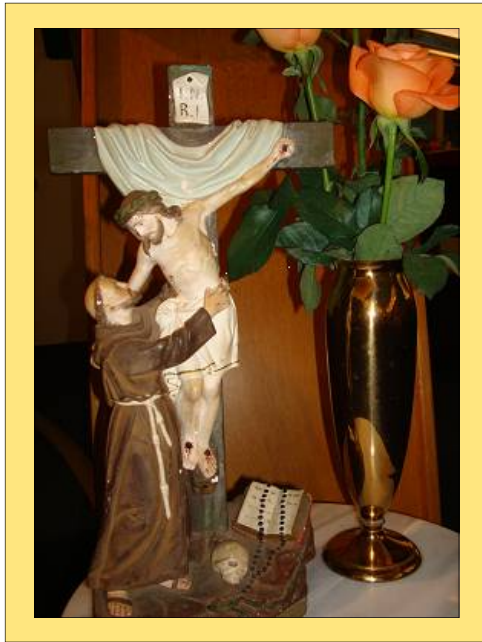

Can anyone besides a Catholic be anointed?

Under ordinary circumstances the Anointing of the Sick is administered to Catholics who have lived according to the Gospel (are in a state of grace), or those who at this time of trial seek conversion back to a life of grace.

Christians who are members of separated Eastern Churches may be anointed whenever they ask for the sacrament on their own and are properly disposed to receive the sacrament.

Baptized Christians who are members of a Protestant community may be anointed with the permission of the bishop if they do not have access to their own ministers and there is a serious reason for the anointing. Those to be anointed in this case must have a Catholic understanding of the sacrament, be spiritually disposed to receive it, and ask to be anointed on their own accord.

Next week part 2

The Sisters Of St. Francis

The Sisters of St. Francis continued their year-long celebration of the 125th Anniversary of the arrival of Blessed Marianne Cope and six companion Sisters this past weekend on O'ahu. Throughout the world on October 3rd, Franciscans commemorate the passage of St. Francis from life through death in a prayer ritual called the Transitus. Last Friday, the Sisters of the Hawaii Region gathered with their Associates, Sisters from other Franciscan congregations and Secular Franciscans at St. Francis Convent for the Transitus. While it may seem to some that the Transitus would be a morbid observation, it is in fact a joyous celebration of St. Francis' being embraced by Sister Death and finally dancing into the arms of his beloved God to whom he had dedicated his life and in whose footsteps thousands of people walk.

On Saturday evening, the feast of St. Francis, Sisters Stephen Marie, Barbara Jean and Marion attended An Evening of Aloha, a benefit concert recognizing Mother Marianne Cope and the Sisters of St. Francis for their 125 years of healthcare and educational service in Hawaii. The event was entitled, Nā Wāhine Kūpa'a – Women of Strength. Intertwined between song and dance were three media presentations: "Women of Strength," "Blessed Mother Marianne" and the "Art of Unconditional Love: Peggy Chun," a local artist totally crippled by Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS-Lou Gehrig's Disease), who found great inspiration in Blessed Marianne and Blessed Damien and whose portraits she painted. Peggy blessed the evening with her presence at the celebration. Entertainers include Snowbird Bento, Haunani Apoliona, Karen Keawahawai'i, Melveen Leed, 24-VII Danceforce, Nā Leo Pilimehana and Pōmaika'i Keawe Lyman. Also in attendance at the evening were many of the Sisters who have ties with St. Joseph Hilo and Mrs. Penny Yu, former elementary school principal.

The Sisters wish the Hilo Roman Catholic Community the blessings of St. Francis each and every day as we all strive to be instruments of God's peace and joy!

Hawai'i Island Humane Society visits SJ Elementary

Students in grades K-6 at the elementary campus were treated to a visit from Erin Vannorsdel, the Humane Education & Volunteer Coordinator for the Hawai'i Island Humane Society on the Big Island. Ms. Vannorsdel spent the day visiting each class with her dog, Ollie, and a 10 day old kitten. She taught students everything from how to care for a pet and how animals defend themselves, to the endangered species act and its status.

Ms. Vannorsdel is part of a free program sponsored by the Humane Society and travels around the island to educate students on the humane treatment of animals. She also coordinates the volunteer program for the Humane Society. For more information she may be reached at 808-217-0154.

3rd Grade History

Students in Mrs. Carmen Stack's 3rd grade class learn about Navtive American Tee Pee's and symbols used to represent different things.

Each student was given a symbol to paint on the teepee. When everyone in the class had completed their painting, all were taught the meaning of each symbol.

"On the Road to a Parish Hall" The At-Large Sub-Team

In prior communications, we learned about the Site Development Sub-Team and their responsibilities. This week, we will learn about the At-Large sub-team and their responsibilities and obligations in helping to complete this project.

The At-Large sub-team's primary strategy has been to operate as "consultants" to the other sub-teams. Members of the At-Large team include an architect/site planner, engineers, a surveyor, as well as real estate and construction professionals. They can be called upon for their knowledge in particular areas and will be able to play a large role in negotiating with the Diocese of Honolulu and the County of Hawaii. Even though they have no specific assignments they are always available for providing advice. Their next milestone is to revise the 1993-1997 Master Plan to include the proposed Parish Hall located on the recently acquired lot adjacent to St. Joseph Church and rectory.

Team members include: Kealii Beck – coordinator, Ronal Aurelio, Gerard Callo, Larry Capellas, Godfrey Nachor, Piilani Chaves, and Salvador Panem.

If you have any questions please contact one of these members.

Malia Puka O Kalani Church

A Message from Fr. Joe

The newly formed Malia Finance Committee will meet on Thursday, Oct 16 at 7:00 pm. It is very interesting to note that the only parish committee required by canon law is a the Finance Committee. This is a recognition by the church that the property, buildings, and revenue be managed in accord with best business practices. Everyone who touches and/ or manages the parish assets (including the clergy) is bound by a system of "checks and balances." Our Finance Committee will review all of our systems to assure that the money which is so generously given by the parishioners is managed in a manner that is transparent and safe. While we function with a basic trust in everyone we make sure that our established systems make it extremely difficult for any person to break that trust. After the October 16th meeting, I will publish the names of the members of the Malia Finance Committee. They are your representatives. I express the gratitude of the parishioners to our fellow parishioners who have accepted this serious responsibility.
