Dear brothers and sisters,

Hail Mary, full of grace!

The feast of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Our Lady of the Assumption (August 15), falls on Sunday this year. The Church commemorates with great joy and thanksgiving the first fruit of Christ's resurrection and ascension--- His mother, Mary, taken up into heaven-- body and soul! Heaven now becomes a perfect home to us because our Blessed Mother, the perfect creature, is there to welcome us, her children.

As we look forward to our home in heaven, we labor and strive to do our best while here on earth. We learn and imitate daily the example of Mary: great faith in God, obedient to God's will, humble service to people, purity in thought, word, and action. Together with St. Joseph, our patron, husband of Mary, we give glory and praise to God for the wonderful gift he has endowed us---Mary, the perfect creature of our race, the new Eve.

"Pray for us holy mother of God, that we may become worthy of the promises of Christ."

In Jesus thru Mary,
Fr. Grogee, SSS

Mission Statement:

Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people.

With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Shame on Us!

The recent census tells us that for the 2008 Election only 54% of eligible Hawaii residents registered to vote, and only 52% of those registered did vote.

This is the lowest rate in the United States and means 75 % of us let a vast minority decide who is to run our lives at the federal, state, and local levels!

Down with this tyranny! Register, learn about the issues, and vote!

You can register by mail, and you can also have an absentee ballot sent to you. The ushers have forms for both, and they are also in the literature rack near the front entrance.

Be advised, the deadline for registering for the September 18, 2010 primary is Thursday, August 19; for the November 2 general election it is Monday, October 4, 2010.

For more information, refer to the registration leaflets or call the County Election Office at 961-8277.

The Church will neither endorse nor oppose any candidate, nor will it allow campaigning on its property. It will however counsel us on the morality of issues when appropriate.

Feast of the Assumption (C)

August 15, 2010

Rv 11:19a; 12: 1-6a, 10ab ; Ps 45:10, 11, 12, 16; 1 Cor 15:20-27; Lk 1:39-56

This feast celebrates our Catholic belief that Mary, when her earthly life was ended, was taken body and soul into heaven. There, she shares in the Resurrection of Christ her son. This doctrine—and the feast—also hold a promise. Today's second reading, from Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians, tells us we, too, as members of the Body of Christ, will share in his Resurrection at the end of time. In the end, when death itself will be destroyed, all of us will share the life of our Risen Lord. Meanwhile, we live with that promise.

And when I say "live," I mean just that. The promise reminds us that God gives us the power to live our lives now in a new way. In today's Gospel, Mary voices her "Magnificat," a proclamation of the wonderful things God has done—and will do—for her. But not only for Mary, but "for those who fear God in every generation," past, present, and future.

Saint Luke, our Gospel author, wanted to assure his own community that they were part of that promise. In his Gospel story, Mary appears as the model disciple, responding to the promises contained in God's Word. She took them to heart and lived by them. Let's imitate Mary, in the way we live our earthly lives, here and now.

The New Testament Study: Let us study the Word of God daily and deepen our faith.

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage. When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet:

And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.

Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage. When they had heard the king, they set out; and there ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising; until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then opening their treasure-chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road. PARISH FEAST: This weekend we celebrate our Patron Feast. When Mary was assumed into heaven she became The Gate of Heaven, Malia Puka O Kalani. We pray that through the intercession of our Virgin Mother our wonderful little parish will continue to grow and become ever more the presence of her son, Jesus Christ.

Mary gave birth to the Prince of Peace. Through her intercession and patronage may Malia Puka O Kalani be the presence of the Prince of Peace in the lives of all the parishioners, our visitors, and our greater community.

While the principal celebration will be at the 9:00 Mass on Sunday, we invite everyone to join in the special Hawaiian Social after the 9:00 Mass. If you can't make it for the 9:00 Mass, you are welcome to come after the Mass for the "Eating" part of the celebration!

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY WALK:

This wonderful organization is sponsoring a 5K Walk on Saturday, August 21 from 7:00 am – 10:00 am, through a Keaukaha neighborhood where volunteers helped build Habitat homes. To sign up, visit the Habitat Web site at www.hilohabitat.org or go to the Habitat center at 700 Manono Street, Suite 102. This is a rain or shine event. If you are looking for something worthwhile to do and get some exercise at the same time, sign up for this valuable project. If you can't walk 5K, consider pledging $1.00 - $10.00 per K for those who will walk. Mahalo!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: We begin registration for Religious Education during the Social on Sunday after the 9:00 Mass. Wendy Cortez and her staff will have a table in the patio where you can both get further information and register. Registration in the Religious Education program is a requirement for sacramental preparation.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/YOUTH GROUP OPEN-HOUSE:

There will be an open-house of the newly renovated Religious Education and Youth Rooms during the social after the 9:00 Mass today. These rooms were completely renovated by our wonderful Maintenance/Repair Committee. Uncle Moke Moses, chairman, and the members of this vibrant committee are to be commended. Wait until you see what they accomplished! This is a wonderful example of lay leadership and the parish committees complementing each other. The Religious Education/Youth Committee stated what they needed and the Maintenance/Repair Committee made it happen. And all of this, at very minimal cost to the parish. A BIG MAHALO!

BAPTISM CLASS: The next Baptism class is Saturday, Sept. 18. If you plan to present a child for baptism in October, November, or December the parents/guardians must attend this class. Call Samantha at 966-6350.

COOK BOOK: This weekend is the deadline to submit your recipes. If you forgot to submit them, we will give one day leniency! Please drop them off no later than Monday, Aug. 16. Mahalo!

FR. JOE GONE: Fr Joe will be gone the next two weeks for consultation with his doctor on the East Coast. There will be no daily Masses this week and the week of Aug 22. He appreciates your prayers.

RCIA PROGRAM:

Three individuals signed up for the RCIA Program at Malia. This program is for adults who wish to be baptized and/or confirmed. The program will be begin in September and end with baptism/confirmation at the Easter Vigil. Three was the minimum. The time of the classes will be determined in early September when we have our first meeting with those registered and the teachers. It will be a time agreeable to all. If there are other adults interested in the program, please call the parish office, 935-9338 or email the parish office at maliapastor@gmail.com. Each registrant needs a "sponsor". This is a person who is a member of the parish, baptized and confirmed. If you are interested in being a "sponsor" for one of the registrants, please call or email the parish office for further information.
