Mission Statement: Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people. With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Pastor's Corner

What does "And With Your Spirit" mean?

Five times during Mass—more than any other phrase—the priest says, “The Lord be with you,” and the people respond, “And also with you.”

Soon, though, the people will respond “And with your spirit.” Why the change?

English is the only major language which does not literally translate the Latin words “et cum spiritu tuo.” For instance, during Spanish Masses, the people respond, “Y con tu espíritu.”

So the new English translation will re-align English speakers with the way the rest of the Church is already praying.

What does the phrase mean? It is a recognition by the people of the unique role of the priest. According to a statement by the United States bishops:

“The expression et cum spiritu tuo is only addressed to an ordained minister. Some scholars have suggested that spiritu refers to the gift of the spirit he received at ordination. In their response, the people assure the priest of the same divine assistance of God’s spirit and, more specifically, help for the priest to use the charismatic gifts given to him in ordination and in so doing to fulfill his prophetic function in the Church.”

In today’s society the presence of exemplary Christian families is more necessary and urgent than ever. Unfortunately, we are forced to acknowledge the spread of a secularization which leads to the exclusion of God from life and the increasing disintegration of the family...Freedom without commitment to the truth is made into an absolute, and individual well-being through the consumption of material goods and transient experiences is cultivated as an ideal, obscuring the quality of interpersonal relations and deeper human values; love is reduced to sentimental emotion and to the gratification of instinctive impulses, without a commitment to building lasting bonds of reciprocal belonging and without openness to life. We are called to oppose such mentality!

~ Pope Benedict XVI, Homily, Holy Mass on the Occasion of the National Day of Croatian Catholic Families, Sunday, 5 June 2011.

Special Invitation to our friends at St. Joseph Parish:

Malia Puka O Kalani will have a Welcome and Farewell Mass at 9 am on Sunday, August 28. We will be officially welcoming Fr. Wilson Buitrago as our new Pastor and reluctantly we say farewell to Fr. Joe Hennen who is returning to the mainland.

Immediately following the Mass there will be a Church Social. Please join us for fellowship on the parish lanai.
