Mission Statement: Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people. With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Dear brothers and sisters,

Peace in our Lord Jesus Christ!

We see in the first reading this Sunday the call of Amos, a farmer, a shepherd, and attendant of sycamore trees to prophesy in His name. Amos responds to God's call but was forbidden to enter the Temple by the priest in Bethel. The words of Amos seemed out of place and unworthy of attention at a time when Israel was enjoying economic and political prosperity. But the prophet's message was a warning against conformity and contentment.

In the Gospel Jesus summons his disciples on a mission. They were instructed to take nothing on the journey except a walking stick and to wear sandals. They are to rely on God's generosity as they fulfill their mission.

The two readings help us to realize that God is calling us out of our comfort zones to take up the challenge of proclaiming His message to others.

God bless you.

In Jesus, our Fullness of Life.

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

NEWLY APPOINTED LECTOR COORDINATOR

Fr. Samuel has appointed LEAH OGDEN as our new Lector Ministry Coordinator for St Joseph Parish effective July 1, 2012. Her prayerful involvement as a lector, sacristan, and Religious Education facilitator at St. Joseph besides her talent for music (singing, playing guitar, ukulele) at morning and evening Liturgy of the Hours and at parish fellowship gatherings are most welcome gifts for serving our parish family. Let us continue to support her and many others serving in the various liturgical and social ministries of our parish "that we may be one" loving community as Jesus prayed before He ascended to the Father.

Malama Pono I Kekahi I Kekahi! (Take care of one another!)

Joyce Cabalse, outgoing Parish Lector Coordinator

Catechist and Volunteer Sign-Up for 2012-2013

Have you ever wondered what a catechist is?

Catechists are teachers of the faith. They are also mentors, guides, prayer partners, & more!

Have you ever thought about being a catechist, but have never given it a try?

We have 4 volunteer catechist spots just waiting for you!

We have teaching opportunities for grades 5th & 6th (a combined class); Confirmation year 1; First Communion year 2 and our RCIC-Saturday Sacramental Preparation class as well as teacher aides and substitute teachers.

All materials are provided plus you will receive assistance with lesson planning. We can show you curriculum and lesson plans and help you choose the grade that best suits your gifts. As you prepare and teach your lessons, one of the main rewards is that you are sure to enrich your own faith!

Call the Rectory Office to schedule an interview at 935-1465 or email Chrislyn Villena at cvillena@stjoehilo.com for more information.
