FOR God SO loved
THE world that He Gave HIS ONE & ONLY Son,
THAT whoever believes in HIM shall NOT perish but have ETERNAL life.
John 3:16

“God who so loved the world that He gave his only son...”

“In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.” The first prayer probably we all learnt. This certainly will be our first encounter with the Holy Trinity, the feast we are celebrating this Sunday. This is a feast of a doctrine rather than of an event of salvation

Trinity means “three in one” and that is because the Three Divine Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit are not three Gods but one God. As such, every one of the three divine Persons is eternal, divine, and perfect. And because the divine perfection of the three Persons is complete and absolute, they are therefore identical, which means they are one. This is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in Himself.

While we might think of mystery as one beyond human comprehension, for the church it means one that can be grasped through God’s revelation in Jesus Christ. In the gospel, Jesus reveals to us who the Father is and likewise who is the Holy Spirit who is to be sent to the disciples. And as for Himself, Jesus tells us what it means to be the son who does the Father’s will. And in them is manifested the divine love for each other that overflows to all of us to be our inspiration in the building up of every Christian community.

In honoring the Holy Trinity today, we proclaim the reality of a “God who so loved the world that He gave his only son.” And thus celebrate God’s awesome love for each other and for all of us. May we respond in kind -- in love for the Triune God and for one another.

raments became separated from one another. In the renewal stemming from the Second Vatican Council, the Church was asked to more clearly set forth the intimate connection of Confirmation with the whole of Christian initiation. This original order also helps us recognize that sharing in the Eucharist completes our initiation into the Church and that it is Eucharist which is the “source and summit of our faith.”

Go to www.catholichawaii.org for more information on this important change.

Indeed, all parishes within the Diocese of Honolulu are restoring the Original Order of the Sacraments of Initiation between 2018-2020.

In the early Church, the person was immersed into the waters of Baptism, anointed with chrism, and shared in the Eucharistic meal as part of a single event. Over time, and for many reasons, the celebration of these three sac-
