All Souls' Day - 2025

A Day of Memory and Hope

This Sunday, as we celebrate All Souls' Day, we pause in silence and prayer, remembering our faithful departed – our parents, siblings, friends, and all who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. It is not meant to be a day of despair, but a day of hopeful remembrance. We come before the Lord to thank Him for the gift of love that endures beyond the grave.

As the Book of Wisdom tells us: "The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them." Our hearts may grieve, but our faith assures us that those we love are safe in God's hands.

To the world, death seems like the end, but for believers, death is a door that opens to the eternity that God has prepared for those who trusted in Him. As Jesus assured us in the Gospel: "This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should lose nothing of what He gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day." Such is the anchor of our hope. Death does not have the final word; the love of God has!

All Souls' Day also reminds us that God never forgets. When we scribble a name on our All Souls envelope, light a candle, or whisper a prayer for the departed, we are echoing what is already in the heart of God. Each soul is precious to Him — even the ones the world has forgotten. No life is wasted, no tear unnoticed, no love unrecorded. As Isaiah says, "Can a mother forget her child? Even if she could, I will not forget you." Our God is a God of remembrance — and His remembering is redemption.

"Eternal light shine upon our faithful departed, O Lord, and may they rest in peace."

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.
May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole Cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.
Amen.
